MAISON D'HÔTES

Clos Marcamps Guest House

In the heart of the Bordeaux vineyards, Clos Marcamps guest house is located less than half an hour from Bordeaux, the Citadel of Blaye and St-Emilion, all of which are classified as UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Our family home is a 19th century chartreuse offering 5 guest rooms in the middle of a park planted with century-old trees, providing an authentic, intimate and relaxing atmosphere.

The recent renovation of our accommodation combines the charm of the old with contemporary luxury.

Virginie & Jean-Philippe

We left Paris in 2022 to settle in Gironde at Clos Marcamps.

We decided to change our life and to take over a guest house because we like to receive and exchange with travelers, we like to please and make your stay unforgettable, we like the serenity of the place and the connection with nature.

Our Commitments

We are particularly committed to preserving the environment and reducing our carbon footprint. We favor short circuits and work with quality products, from a responsible and reasoned agriculture.

To understand in more detail our daily commitments, we invite you to discover below some of the steps we have initiated:

Your heating and cooling needs are exclusively produced by the latest generation of air-to-air heat pumps

Your artificial light sources are 100% LED

Waste treatment involves selective sorting and composting

We source a maximum of products locally

L'Eau Neuve natural mineral water is available in a fully recyclable cardboard bottle

Toiletries and cleaning products are biodegradable and used in eco-refills

We use a LauraStar steam purifier to disinfect your rooms and eliminate viruses and bacteria

More than 80% of the food products used for breakfast and meals are organic and/or homemade by Virginie

We choose our partners and providers recognized for their ecological commitment

Our 2 Tesla charging stations allow you to charge your electric vehicle for free

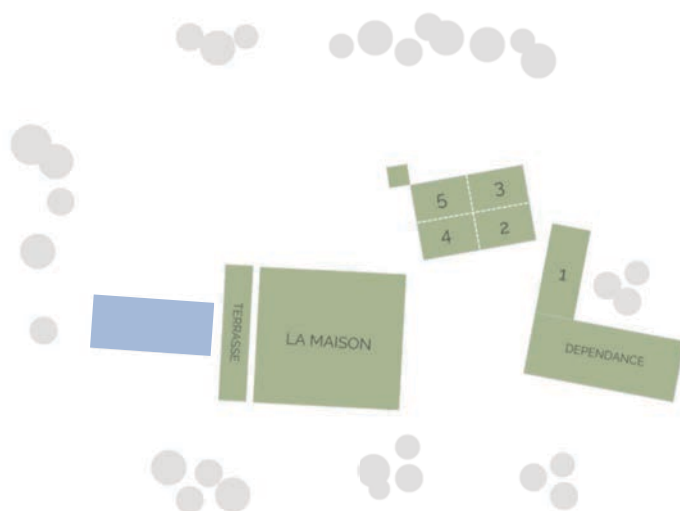

Your hosts support and are associated with the citizen movement Time For The Planet

Around the Clos

Places of Cultural and Tourist Interest

The region has no shortage of cultural and tourist attractions.
We can help you plan your visits in the Bordeaux area.

Pair-Non Pair Cave

The famous Pair-Non-Pair cave located in the commune of Prignac-et-Marcamps is one of the most remarkable prehistoric decorated caves belonging to the ancient Upper Paleolithic period. Its engraved bestiary, dating back more than 30,000 years, presents horses, ibexes, deer, mammoths and an exceptional figuration of a megaceros. Reservations are essential in high season..

Bourg-sur-Gironde and the Vineyards

The Côtes-de-Bourg vineyard has been present in our land since Roman times. On the banks of the Gironde Estuary, in a hilly area known as the "Little Switzerland of Gironde", how can you resist its charm and the appeal of its landscapes and privileged climate? At its heart, the small medieval village of Bourg-sur-Gironde and its numerous second-hand dealers.

Citadelle of Blaye

A quarter of an hour from Clos Marcamps, the Citadel of Blaye is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Marked by the History of France and by illustrious people, it invites you to discover magnificent panoramas over the largest estuary in Europe, the Gironde. It has kept intact the defence system put in place by Vauban with its 1.5 km of ramparts, its gates and its underground passages, as well as the buildings necessary for the proper functioning of a garrison.

Bordeaux

Only half an hour's drive from Clos Marcamps, the city of Bordeaux, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is an essential visit: Place de la Bourse and its water mirror, Saint-André cathedral, Capucins market, Sainte-Catherine shopping street, Cité du Vin...

Saint-Émilion

The pretty village of Saint-Emilion, known worldwide for its vineyards listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, is rich in historical architecture and varied wine-growing landscapes. Only half an hour's drive from Clos Marcamps, Saint-Emilion is a must-see during your stay.

Arcachon Bay

An emblematic site of the South-West, the Bay of Arcachon, an hour's drive from Clos Marcamps, is renowned for its landscape, which is ideal for walks along the ocean, its sandy beaches, the lively town of Arcachon, the Dune du Pilat... A major centre of seaside tourism in Gironde, the Bay of Arcachon has managed to preserve its natural heritage.
